Looking ahead

History and Heritage Month is in full swing and it has been wonderful to see the response from within our suburb and outside!

Our Peninsula Walks have almost sold out, our Heritage Buildings walks are selling really well and our talks at the Rise are proving to be pretty popular.

This week we have John McLennan giving a talk on Protesting Maylands where he'll show TV footage from the 1990s on protests held on the Peninsula.

A full list of activities is included with this newsletter.

We're also delighted to have Jennie Hunt coming to give a talk at our regular monthly meeting on Monday 21st November. Jennie is an active volunteer with King's Park and the Dolphin Watch Project and her talk will look at the Swan River System; its Aboriginal connections through to the early explorers and settlers and finally how it is today.

In the news!! Saturday 23 July 1927

It is at present a fact that there is barely a patch of bushland, or a stretch of only mildly popular beach, upon which bands of youthful pirates or brigands, or smugglers in imagination do not pursue their terrible occupations. In Maylands, said the young constable who charged the boys referred to above, excitable kids hide behind the trees in the streets, and shoot at each other. "T'would be an easy matter to knock someone's eye out with an air gun, said the constable. He spoke with truth. Toys, as air guns are, in the hands of irresponsible youngsters, are capable of inflicting serious injuries.

Maylands Historical and Peninsula Association Annual General Meeting

We held our AGM on Monday 17th October. It was very well attended and a big thank you to all of those that were able to come.

We were able to distribute the brochures for the History and Heritage Month and many stayed behind for nibbles and drinks!

The Peninsula Hotel (now Dome café and headquarters) is a very special Maylands heritage building. It is always a pleasure to hold our monthly historical talks in what was once the Peninsula Hotel dining room.
